- 25X1 1. Walter Rübél, a CDU member of the central secretariat of the National Front, 25X1 attended a meeting of the secretariat on 22 August. After his return from the meeting "The only means we have of forestalling West German rearmament is to invade West Germany. This action is still possible because it would entail only civil war. The National Front has already proclaimed a national emergency, and now it is necessary to proclaim a national revolution. The people of East Germany would then rise up and rush to the aid of their oppressed brothers in the west." 2. When it was suggested that this would mean war, Rübél replied, "That is not true. It would be only a civil war, like the one in Korea, since the Russians would hold back and only the People's Police would carry out the attack."
